A Premium of	$25 00
For an accepted Recruit (not a veteran)	15 00

In offering these liberal terms, Bounties and Premiums, it is the desire of the Government to give the people the opportunity of doing away with the necessity for the draft, to come off January 5th, 1864, under the President's last call of Oct. 17, for 300,000 men. So that all sub-districts who furnish their quota under this last call will not be liable to the draft of January 5th, 1864, and will be credited for whatever number they furnish.

It should be understood, that all enlistments whether under the above conditions or in other organizations, will be credited in this last call.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Literary Emendation.

To the Editor of the Evening Post:

To see an extract from good literature paraded in a distorted or maimed condition about the newspapers, is as afflictive to the accurate scholar as it would be to a benevolent man to see a horse shown about with his tail cut close off, or a procession of cripples or one-eyed men.

The following lines, thus written, are now floating through the papers:

> "Here lies the bones of Alexander Macpherson,
> He was a most extra'dinary person;
> He was slow
> At Waterloo,
> The Bullet
> Went in his Gullet,
> And came out at the back of his neck."

Out of respect for the late lamented Mr. Macpherson, and still more for the literae humaniores, pray let me enable you to launch the correct epitaph upon the sea of print, even though it chase about after that piratical counterfeit as uselessly as at last advices does the Vanderbilt after the Alabama. It was thus that the Ossian of this Macpherson really sung:

> "Here lies the body of Alexander Macpherson,
> Who was a very extraordinary person.
> He was slow
> At the battle of Waterloo.
> He was shot by a bullet
> Plumb through the gullet,
> It went in at his throat
> And came out at the back of his coat."

Yours, in the cause, PILULA ALLII.

SOMETHING EXTRAORDINARY.—M. D. Conway writing from London to the Boston Commonwealth, says:—

Let me tell you of a wonderful chess player, an account of whose performance I received lately from a distinguished and learned Hindoo Pundit here Ram Shandah Bat Chresini. The chess player came from Madras to Bombay, where Ram Shandah saw him. He is between 45 and 50 years of age. He plays several games—three if I remember—blindfolded, and wins them. At the same time he plays a game of cards—there are 120 different cards in a Hindoo pack—and wins. At the time when these games are going on, he is given orally sums of multiplication to the extent of four figures (e. g. 9397 x 8999) and gives the correct result. At the same time a sentence of about one hundred words, each word being numbered, is given to him irregularly, (35 if, 92 but, 61 pitcher, &c,) and he gives the whole sentence. During the game a bell is touched every one or two seconds, and he gives the number of times it has been touched. A man stands behind and throws little pebbles one by one against his back; these too he counts. And after the games are, and all these are told, he recites a poem in perfect rhyme, which he has composed during the sitting! Ram Shandah is, I assure you an entirely credible witness, and a very clever man every way.

INCREASED TAX ON DISTILLATION OPPOSED.—The reported deficiencies of 135,000,000 bushels in the corn crop this year, as estimated by the agricultural department, has been assumed by some members of Congress as a ground for an objection to an increase of tax on high-wines. It is understood some members will oppose strenuously any increase of the present tax. They argue that an increased tax, together with the present high price of grain, will force distillers to a suspension of operations, and thus diminish instead of adding to the revenue receipts.

A SHARP REBUKE.—A clergyman had two daughters, who were very much too fond of dress, which was a great grief to him. He had often reproved them in vain; and preaching one Sabbath day on the sin of pride, he took occasion to notice, among other things, pride in dress. After speaking some considerable time on the subject, he suddenly stopped short, and said, with much feeling and emphasis, "But you will say, 'look at home.' My good friends, I do look at home till my heart aches."

THE IMPORTANT MOVEMENT IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The movement of Gen. Averill to cut the Virginia & Tennessee Railroad in the rear of Longstreet was one of the most daring and difficult enterprises of the war. He struck the road at Salem, Roanoke county, Virginia, destroyed three depots and a large amount of grain and stores, making terrible havoc among rebel property for six hours. Five bridges and several culverts were also destroyed, and the railroad used up for fifteen miles. A large quantity of bridge timber and repairing material shared the same fate. Some two hundred prisoners were captured and two hundred and fifty horses.

The march over the Alleghanies and icy roads has hardly a parallel. General A. states that he was obliged to swim his command, drawing artillery by ropes, across Cragg's creek seventeen times in twenty-four hours. The enemy were hard after him on his return, but his loss was inconsiderable—six men drowned, one officer and four men wounded, and four officers and ninety men missing. General Averill reports that officers and men suffered cold, hunger and fatigue with remarkable fortitude, and that his command marched, climbed, slid and swam 353 miles from the 5th to the 21st of December.

It will take the rebels some weeks to repair the railroad, and in the meantime Longstreet's army must subsist as it best can.

GOLD BY THE SHOVELFULL.—A tradition has been current for years, that some lost immigrants, in 1845, while wandering through the country drained by the Malheur, discovered mines where gold could be raked up by the shovelfull. At the time, the discoverers were ignorant of the characteristics of gold in its native state, and accordingly they passed on, regarding the metal as worthless. A few years later, some of these men were attracted to California, and on visiting the mines there, almost the first remark was, that they knew where bushels of that kind of stuff was to be had. Since that date scarce a year has passed that did not witness the departure of companies of men who were sent for the purpose of discovering the country described by the immigrants. These exploring parties have uniformly proved failures, owing in a great measure to the hostility of the Indians, who have resolutely refused to allow the white man to prospect their country. At last, however, a party more fortunate than the rest have succeeded in finding the long lost gold field, and, if reports are to be believed, the story of its richness has not been exaggerated by the original discoverers.—Dallas (Oregon) Mountaineer.

There are no less than forty-eight war vessels now being fitted for sea at the Brooklyn navy yard.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Literary Emendation.

To the Editor of the Evening Post:

To see an extract from good literature paraded in a distorted or maimed condition about the newspapers, is as afflictive to the accurate scholar as it would be to a benevolent man to see a horse shown about with his tail cut close off, or a procession of cripples or one-eyed men.

The following lines, thus written, are now floating through the papers:

> "Here lies the bones of Alexander Macpherson,
> He was a most extra'dinary person;
> He was slow
> At Waterloo,
> The Bullet
> Went in his Gullet,
> And came out at the back of his neck."

Out of respect for the late lamented Mr. Macpherson, and still more for the literae humaniores, pray let me enable you to launch the correct epitaph upon the sea of print, even though it chase about after that piratical counterfeit as uselessly as at last advices does the Vanderbilt after the Alabama. It was thus that the Ossian of this Macpherson really sung:

> "Here lies the body of Alexander Macpherson,
> Who was a very extraordinary person.
> He was slow
> At the battle of Waterloo.
> He was shot by a bullet
> Plumb through the gullet,
> It went in at his throat
> And came out at the back of his coat."

Yours, in the cause, PILULA ALLH.

SOMETHING EXTRAORDINARY.—M. D. Conway writing from London to the Boston Commonwealth, says:—

Let me tell you of a wonderful chess player, an account of whose performance I received lately from a distinguished and learned Hindoo Pundit here Ram Shandah Bai Chresini. The chess player came from Madras to Bombay, where Ram Shandah saw him. He is between 45 and 50 years of age. He plays several games—three if I remember—blindfolded, and wins them. At the same time he plays a game of cards—there are 120 different cards in a Hindoo pack—and wins. At the time when these games are going on, he is given orally sums of multiplication to the extent of four figures (e. g. 9397 x 8999) and gives the correct result. At the same time a sentence of about one hundred words, each word being numbered, is given to him irregularly, (35 if, 92 but, 61 pitcher, &c.,) and he gives the whole sentence. During the game a bell is touched every one or two seconds, and he gives the number of times it has been touched. A man stands behind and throws little pebbles one by one against his back; these too he counts. And after the games are, and all these are told, he recites a poem in perfect rhyme, which he has composed during the sitting! Ram Shandah is, I assure you an entirely credible witness, and a very clever man every way.

INCREASED TAX ON DISTILLATION OPPOSED.—The reported deficiencies of 135,000,000 bushels in the corn crop this year, as estimated by the agricultural department, has been assumed by some members of Congress as a ground for an objection to an increase of tax on high-wines. It is understood some members will oppose strenuously any increase of the present tax. They argue that an increased tax, together with the present high price of grain, will force distillers to a suspension of operations, and thus diminish instead of adding to the revenue receipts.

A SHARP REBUKE.—A clergyman had two daughters, who were very much too fond of dress, which was a great grief to him. He had often reproved them in vain; and preaching one Sabbath day on the sin of pride, he took occasion to notice, among other things, pride in dress. After speaking some considerable time on the subject, he suddenly stopped short, and said, with much feeling and emphasis, "But you will say, 'look at home.' My good friends, I do look at home till my heart aches."

THE IMPORTANT MOVEMENT IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The movement of Gen. Averill to cut the Virginia & Tennessee Railroad in the rear of Longstreet was one of the most daring and difficult enterprises of the war. He struck the road at Salem, Roanoke county, Virginia, destroyed three depots and a large amount of grain and stores, making terrible havoc among rebel property for six hours. Five bridges and several culverts were also destroyed, and the railroad used up for fifteen miles. A large quantity of bridge timber and repairing material shared the same fate. Some two hundred prisoners were captured and two hundred and fifty horses.

The march over the Alleghanies and icy roads has hardly a parallel. General A. states that he was obliged to swim his command, drawing artillery by ropes, across Cragg's creek seventeen times in twenty-four hours. The enemy were hard after him on his return, but his loss was inconsiderable—six men drowned, one officer and four men wounded, and four officers and ninety men missing. General Averill reports that officers and men suffered cold, hunger and fatigue with remarkable fortitude, and that his command marched, climbed, slid and swam 353 miles from the 5th to the 21st of December.

It will take the rebels some weeks to repair the railroad, and in the meantime Longstreet's army must subsist as it best can.

GOLD BY THE SHOVELFULL.—A tradition has been current for years, that some lost immigrants, in 1845, while wandering through the country drained by the Malheur, discovered mines where gold could be raked up by the shovelfull. At the time, the discoverers were ignorant of the characteristics of gold in its native state, and accordingly they passed on, regarding the metal as worthless. A few years later, some of these men were attracted to California, and on visiting the mines there, almost the first remark was, that they knew where bushels of that kind of stuff was to be had. Since that date scarce a year has passed that did not witness the departure of companies of men who were sent for the purpose of discovering the country described by the immigrants. These exploring parties have uniformly proved failures, owing in a great measure to the hostility of the Indians, who have resolutely refused to allow the white man to prospect their country. At last, however, a party more fortunate than the rest have succeeded in finding the long lost gold field, and, if reports are to be believed, the story of its richness has not been exaggerated by the original discoverers.—Dallas (Oregon) Mountaineer.

There are no less than forty-eight war vessels now being fitted for sea at the Brooklyn navy yard.

Medicated Vapor Baths.

Doctor BURRUS is making arrangements to give medicated vapor baths at the Myers House, where the accommodations are ample for at least one hundred patients. He has attended lectures at three different medical colleges, and had opportunities of witnessing extensive clinical practice, besides spending several months at the Elmira Water Cure, N. Y. where there was from one to two hundred patients treated for every variety of chronic disease. More patients were cured by the vapor bath, of rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Sore-throat, Incipient Consumption, and that class of diseases known by the name of Female Weakness, than by all other known remedies put together. There is no remedy so well adapted to the cure of skin diseases and so certain in its effects as the vapor bath. No doubt but it will be found an efficient remedy in Diptheria.

Matters in Kansas.

The following is an extract from a private letter received in this city:

HEADQUARTERS 1st BRIGADE CAVALRY DIVISION,
DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.
BENTON, Ark., Dec. 31.

DEAR PARENTS:—When I last wrote, I informed you that I hoped to date this, my next, from a point somewhat nearer you than I now am. In that however I am disappointed; am here yet and shall probably remain here or at Little Rock until spring. I am the much more contented with the arrangement from the fact of a great change for the better in my health, which is on the general average about as good as usual, and I am gaining my strength rapidly. I am pleasantly situated, comfortably quartered and quite at home. The weather has been beautiful, warm and dry, thus far. Yesterday and for nearly a week past we have had no fires, but to-day there is a high northern wind and it is quite cool. When I think of you poor folks at home shivering or wading around in the snow, I wish you could be with us, or rather had our climate there. I have only worn an overcoat yet upon rainy days.

I enclose an address which may be of interest to you. You may have seen it elsewhere. Gaunt was a rebel brigadier general, taken first at Island number 10. It will give you some idea of political movements now progressing. Arkansas is now a more loyal state than Missouri. Scarce a day passes but refugees reach us from all parts of the state below and from Texas. In the latter state it is represented that the union party is nearly if not quite equal in strength to the rebel force now in it, and if they had but the arms they could protect their own state. It will be rough times for rebel leaders, and many rank and file too, citizens and all, when these refugees return armed and under our protection.

As the area of operations of these leaders becomes more and more restricted they seem to become less human in their doings, and house burning, and hanging of old men, and boys of 10 to 15 years of age, is of daily occurrence. As Gaunt intimates that he expected it, they have burned his house and destroyed all his property, leaving his family in a state bordering on starvation. We sent a flag of truce out to endeavor to bring his wife into our lines, but Gen. Holmes would not permit her to come.

When this army moves we shall run them out of Arkansas and into, if not through, Texas like a gang of sheep.—They won't fight, are disgusted, and only kept together by fear—fear of their own leaders, and fear of what might be done to them if they come back. They are only about 15,000 to 20,000 strong, and their outposts only 30 or 40 miles below here, scattered from there to Red River. They scout clear up to our lines. Every once in a while we drop down and give them a clatter, just to let them know that we are alive yet. Col. Merrill went out a few days ago (got back yesterday) with about 1200 cavalry and four guns, and run about 6,000 of them across the Ouchita river. He had only one man wounded, killed six rebels with the sabre—an unusual thing—and brought in twenty-eight prisoners.

I regret that I cannot keep my engagement on New Year's day, but hope that I may be able to eat a dozen dinners in its place "when the spring time comes." Until then I must e'en do with hard tack and bacon.

Accept my heartfelt wishes for a merry Christmas, and a far happier New Year than the last has proved to us, and that life and health may be vouchsafed to us all.

INAUGURATION OF THE NEW STATE OFFICERS.—The inauguration of the state officers elect will take place on Monday, the 4th of January. The oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Dixon, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, in the assembly chamber. The new state officers, will receive their friends in the evening at the same place.

The Rochester people have a ghost that climbs trees and rings bells.

Unrequited love is a great power in society. Its influence lately caused a Washington lawyer to blow his brains out, and a St. Louis dutchman to drown himself.

In Troy, the other day, while a physician was hunting up one of his patients, he stumbled into the apartment of a poor woman, and discovered that for lack of a bedstead she used her bureau—each drawer being propped up and converted into a sleeping bunk for her little ones.

At a sale of coins at New York on Tuesday evening, a collection of American cents sold well—one, dated 1793, was knocked down for $6; another, $4,67; two copies of the same date, uncirculated, brought $20 each. A penny of 1794 sold for $20, and another for $8. A liberty cap cent of 1796, of which there are few now in existence, sold for $30.

Donation Party.

At a meeting held in Janesville on the 29th inst., it was resolved to have a Donation Party for the benefit of Rev. G. W. Lawrence, to be held at the Myers House, in said city on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, January 5th, 1864, and the following named gentlemen and ladies were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The committee feel constrained to suggest that Mr. Lawrence, by his long residence among us, by his exemplary life, by his untiring efforts in the cause of religion and good morals, is deserving of this testimonial from the people of Rock county. We therefore extend an earnest and general invitation to all to co operate with us in this worthy effort.

All description of articles as well as money will be received. A supper will be prepared, for which the ladies are solicited to furnish the material. Good music will be in attendance.

As it is designed to have the supper ready by seven o'clock, it is hoped that all who are willing to assist, and all who bring articles for the table, will be there by five o'clock at the latest.

By order of the committee,
J. M. BURGESS, Ch'n.

AN IMPORTANT RAILROAD CONNECTION.—We learn that beside the extension of the Milwaukee and Western road from Columbus to Portage City, the contract has been let for the construction of the east end of the road from where it now joins the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien road, at what at what is called the Watertown depot, into the city, forming a connection and making a union depot with the Milwaukee and Chicago road. McDonald, of Madison, is the contractor on the east end. The whole road from the Lake Shore depot to Portage City, it is expected will be in operation by the first of June.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The commissioners from the several northern states interested in the cemetery at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, held a meeting in Harrisburg on the 17th inst., at which the plans for the proper completion of the cemetery were agreed upon. The estimated expenses, including the erection of an appropriate monument, foot up the amount of $63,500—to defray which the several states will be asked to appropriate sums of money, to be determined by a division of the expenses according to representation in congress.

Dr. Holmes says, in the Atlantic: "Mr. Beecher is a strong, healthy man in mind and body. His nerves have never been corrugated with alcohol; his thinking-marrow is not brown with tobacco fumes, like a meerschaum, as are the brains of so many unfortunate Americans; he is the same lusty, warm-blooded, strong fibred, brave hearted, bright-souled, clear-eyed creature that he was when the college boys at Amherst acknowledged him as the chiefest among their football kickers."

Among the Christmas gifts mentioned in the Hartford papers are coffins! Cheerful thought.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.

A Charleston letter to the Baltimore American, dated on the fleet, 24th, says: As I intimated in my last, we have sailed down here in the expectation of a month or two of inactivity. The strike among the engineers at the north, which has hindered the completion of new monitors and deprived our iron clad fleet of the reinforcements which were expected here more than a month since, has been the principal cause of delay, and the disabling of the Weehawken, and the coming on of the winter season, with its continual storms, has still further engendered this delay.—Two months hence spring will be advanced here, and our iron-clad force will be increased by three or four new monitors.—We will be prepared to take advantage of the most healthful and pleasant part of the season. Let us hope, if Grant does not steal a march on by one of his famous rear attacks, that Charleston will then fall.

In the meantime, if we cannot look for immediate and decisive results here, no great fear need be apprehended. General Gilmore's position is impregnable. The monitor Lehigh, by the time this reaches you, will have completed the repairs rendered necessary by the hammering she received while aground. The Patapsco has nearly completed repairs, and will shortly relieve the Nantucket at Warsaw Sound. Both the Patapsco and Lehigh have been provided with extra deck planks that will add to their invulnerability.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Dec. 28.

The steamer Adriatic, from Galway 22d, arrived here this afternoon. Her dates are four days later than those of the City of Manchester. The government employees at Sheerness, who assisted in fitting out the Rappahannock, have been discharged for violation of the neutrality law.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The Army of the Potomac has finally settled down, mud bound, into winter quarters. Cedar Mountain, the key to the position there, is held by our forces. The people all over that section are in a state of starvation, and daily thronging our camps to procure provisions, which our commissaries are ordered to sell at government prices. In this way many are relieved, while also nests of guerrillas are enabled to obtain supplies and protract their thieving and murdering system.

The firing heard on Friday was caused by an extension of our picket line.

Files of Richmond papers are received to the 25th inst. Much excitement had been occasioned by Averill's daring raid, and all the accounts of the vast destruction of property by his command are fully confirmed. It was thought one time he was endeavoring to reach Danville, to liberate the Union prisoners. The rebels were confident of capturing him, and declared that if he escaped, their cavalry had better be re-organized.

Col. Streight had escaped from Libby prison, but was subsequently recaptured. Capt. Alexander Richmond, commandant at Castle Thunder, had been arrested for extorting money from prisoners confined there.

It has transpired in official quarters that, although at one time named for the place, Gen. Rosecrans has not and will not now be ordered to the command of the department of the Missouri.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 29.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 25th contains the following:

BRISTOW, Dec. 23.—Our forces are still around Rutledge and Morristown.

Cannonading was heard at the latter place on Sunday.

Longstreet is unable to follow up his advantage in consequence of the large number of barefooted men in his command.

The weather is cold and the mountains are covered with snow.

Gen. Morgan passed through Columbia, S. C., on the 24th inst.

There were 300 cases of small pox among the Yankee prisoners at Danville.

The confederate army in East Tennessee have gone into winter quarters.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette:

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.

Specials are barren of news.

Herald's dispatches.—Major Mulford, flag of truce officer between Fort Monroe and City Point, arrived here this afternoon by special train from Annapolis, with unimportant dispatches for the government.

In his annual report, Secretary Chase asks congress to repeal that provision directing him to make loans for ten to forty years, and empower him instead to negotiate necessary loans on whatever terms he may in his discretion deem best for the public interest. This authority will undoubtedly be given, and the Secretary will have power to issue $300,000,000 more of the popular 5 20 loan. If subscriptions to this loan should continue to come in faster than needed by the department, we understand that permission will be given to agents to receipt subscriptions, payable in installments, as the amount shall be required, five per cent. only to be deposited as guaranty, thus saving to the government a large amount of interest.

Since congress refused to pay the exorbitant bounties expected, re-enlistments have been much increased and hundreds are arriving here daily. Those who were waiting for an increase of bounty are now coming forward, and in a few weeks at the present rate nearly all of the army of the Potomac will have re enlisted for the war.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The World's special.—Not a little disappointment is felt at the failure to effect an exchange of prisoners, for General Butler telegraphed here that he was quite sanguine of securing a complete exchange. The whole matter now rests with Generals Hitchcock and Meredith. The rebels still permit private donations of provisions to go to our prisoners, but will receive nothing from our government in that line.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The war department has under consideration several important questions relating to the draft which will shortly be made public. The quotas of the several states are being arranged so as to avoid difficulties in the future. Each state will be officially informed of the number of men it is expected to raise, and the time fixed for the enforcement of the draft, which will not be later than the middle of January.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.

The sanitary fair closes on Saturday night. The produce and merchandise hall for the reception of donations of merchandise and country produce, will continue open until January 9th.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.

The Post says a British lieutenant, who was to sail for Bermuda to-day, was arrested by Marshal Murray and sent to Fort La Fayette. A rebel mail was found concealed in his baggage. The letters were immediately forwarded to Secretary Seward.

Further developments relative to the seizure of the steamer Cromwell and barque Circassian are published. It appears on day of sailing of the Cromwell, Marshal Murray arrested H. Legur, formerly United States Minister to San Salvador, together with his wife, maid, child, Messrs. G. F. Canby and D. Bereas, all of whom were sent to Fort La Fayette. Legur's baggage was searched. A bill of lading was found for 50 barrels of lard shipped on board the Circassian. On searching the lard 1,000 navy revolvers were found secreted therein. Canby and others were arrested for having been found in company with Legur, and on the supposition that they knew something of the matter.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Wadsworth says, "the tall mountains sleep night and day alike." Certainly the very tall ones always have their white night caps on.

A merchant advertised a commodity for sale, and gave notice that he would take in payment all kinds of country produce except promises.

What is the principal difference between the swallow and the cat? It is an admitted fact that "one swallow does not make a summer," but any cat can make a spring.

A western editor was lately shot in an affray. Luckily the ball came against a bundle of unpaid accounts in his pocket. Gunpowder couldn't get through that.

Cicero said he approved a youth that had nothing of the old man in him. We wonder how he would have liked a man with something of the old boy in him.

We nearly always talk of a thing before we do it; every action, like a statue, is first modelled in the poor wax of words.

"Man," said Adam Smith, "is an animal that makes bargains. No other animal does this—no dog exchanges bones with another."

A great mind, without the nutrition of adversity, would starve.

A brick making machine has been invented at New Haven, which wets the clay, kneads it, forces it through an orifice just brick size, and at proper distances cuts off the complete brick, at the rate of sixty per minute. The baking process of course comes afterwards.

The loss of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad company, by the burning of their machine shop at Aurora, foots up an aggregate of $250,000.

The strongest man feels the influence of woman's gentlest thoughts, as the mightiest oak quivers in the softest breeze.

The creation of a special committee of the house of representatives, with Mr. Spaulding as its chairman, "to consider the subject of a national bankrupt act," is regarded as a hopeful sign by the advocates of that measure.

A lunatic asylum in France was recently set on fire by one of the inmates. The building was destroyed and six of the female inmates were burned to death.

The negro schools in New Orleans sustained by the government are seven in number, with 23 teachers and 1,190 scholars. The little darkies prove admirable scholars.

James Speed and others propose to start an "unconditional Union," that is an anti-slavery newspaper at Louisville, Kentucky, on the 1st of January. Good sense and success be with it.

Paris is to be lighted by balloons, whose cars are to give forth an electric light. There is to be one balloon for each 80,000 people in the city.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A fire at Aurora, Ill., on the 18th inst., destroyed the machine shop of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, with a large quantity of machinery and patterns, a locomotive and other property. The loss is estimated at $250,000. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

NOVEL HAYING.—Some farmers in Eliot, Me., who, through the excessive wet of the past summer, were unable to get on some low swamp land, have recently been mowing and hauling away the hay on the top of the ice.

A poor Irishman who applied for a license to sell spirits in one of the provincial towns of Ireland, being questioned by the board of excise as to moral fitness for trust, replied: "Och, an it's there ye are? sure an it's not much of a character a man needs to sell whisky."

Some one spoiled a ball in Washington, Monday night last, by scattering a large quantity of cayenne pepper and Scotch snuff upon the floor, just before the commencement of the dancing. The officer who came in to arrest the guilty party was prostrated by the effects of the cayenne.

A COMPLIMENT TO AMERICAN GENTLEMEN.—An accomplished English lady, in a recent contribution to Frazer's Magazine, says: "If any time I needed to find a gentleman who should aid me in my little difficulties of travel, or show me a kindness with that consideration of a woman which is the true tone of a manly courtesy, then I should desire to find a North American gentleman. They are simply the most kind and courteous of any people."

ATTEMPT OF REBEL OFFICERS TO ESCAPE FROM JOHNSON'S ISLAND.—The Sandusky Register, of Friday morning, says that General Archer, General Jones, two captains and one civilian, prisoners on Johnson's Island attempted to escape from the Island on Thursday night, by bribing the guard. The proposition was made to two of the guard, and communicated to the officer of the day in advance, so that the final matter was anything but tragic. The guard permitted the men to escape from the enclosure and to reach a certain distance away, where they paid over the agreed sum, $200 to each of the guard. Greenbacks being short, the amount was eked out with two gold watches. One of the guard received $150 and a gold watch, and the other about the same. As soon as the quid pro quo was handed over, the curtain dropped, other acts came on the stage, and the five adventurers were ordered back to their old quarters—minus expenses. Clearly that experiment did not pay.

A GOOD MOVE.—A petition is in circulation, and is being numerously signed by many persons interested, for the passage of a law for the protection of the fur trade. This is a good move in the right direction and one that will have a tendency, if it becomes a law, to protect fur bearing animals from being slaughtered promiscuously out of season.—Oshkosh Courier.

CURIOUS STATEMENT ABOUT JEFFERSON DAVIS.—A correspondent of the Evening Post, writing from Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, says:

Prairie du Chien is a city which has very little interest to the present generation, except for its commercial advantages, but it has peculiar significance to old residents of the west, and there is hardly an officer in the old army but at one time or another has been quartered at Fort Crawford. I was fortunate enough to meet with a highly respectable gentleman, a native of the place, and a son of French parents. He described Fremont, who visited him while on a surveying trip in the northwest, as a young officer of great energy, somewhat taciturn, but always affable and interesting. His descriptions and recollections of Jefferson Davis, who came from West Point, were most significant. It is a singular phenomenon in physiology, that a people of mixed races sometimes retain for years the evidence of their lineage upon the mother's side, but in the course of time, under climatic and other influences the features change and the trace is lost. One shrinks from relating anything likely to hurt the susceptibilities of so lofty a person as slaveholding Jeff. Davis, but history is impartial, and it must be told that he was known to the towns-people and by his brother officers as the "little nigger." My worthy informant, who has very friendly memories of Davis, having been taught to speak English by him, avers that he not only carried the negro in his face, but that he has it in his blood, and that several years after, when visiting his former friend, then secretary of war, he did not recognize him, and could scarcely believe him to be the same person.

While I am conscious that this intelligence, the truth of which I do not for an instant doubt, for it was confirmed by the evidence of many others, may not injure the cause of the secessionists in the minds of many good people, yet the world at large will not fail to draw the conclusion that the "little nigger" came legitimately, in one sense, into possession of his thirst for rule from his ancestors of Congo or Dahomey.

A magnificent altar has been brought from Europe by Bishop McClosky, for the cathedral at Albany. It has been erected in that building, and was used for the first time on christmas morning. It is said to be one of the richest and most beautiful altars in the country.

Barlow's Indigo Blue.

Dealers and consumers of the above celebrated Wash Blue will please take notice that the Labels are Altered to RED.

THIS article will color more water than twice the same quantity of Indigo, and to go much further than any other Wash Blue in the market. It dissolves perfectly clear and does not settle on the clothes as most of the other blues do. One box dissolved in a half pint of water, will make as good a liquid blue as any that is made, at one third the cost.

As it is retailed at the same price as the imitations and inferior articles, housekeepers will find it very much to their advantage to ask for Barlow's and take no other. Lieut. Col. Lovell has received a dispatch from Provost Marshal General Fry, stating that recruits will be credited to the towns by which they are enlisted and from which they accept bounties.

Matters in Kansas.

The following is an extract from a private letter received in this city:

HEADQUARTERS 1st BRIGADE CAVALRY DIVISION,
DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.
BENTON, Ark., Dec. 31.

DEAR PARENTS:—When I last wrote, I informed you that I hoped to date this, my next, from a point somewhat nearer you than I now am. In that however I am disappointed; am here yet and shall probably remain here or at Little Rock until spring. I am the much more contented with the arrangement from the fact of a great change for the better in my health, which is on the general average about as good as usual, and I am gaining my strength rapidly. I am pleasantly situated, comfortably quartered and quite at home. The weather has been beautiful, warm and dry, thus far. Yesterday and for nearly a week past we have had no fires, but to-day there is a high northern wind and it is quite cool. When I think of you poor folks at home shivering or wading around in the snow, I wish you could be with us, or rather had our climate there. I have only worn an overcoat yet upon rainy days.

I enclose an address which may be of interest to you. You may have seen it elsewhere. Gaunt was a rebel brigadier general, taken first at Island number 10. It will give you some ideas of political movements now progressing. Arkansas is now a more loyal state than Missouri. Scarce a day passes but refugees reach us from all parts of the state below and from Texas. In the latter state it is represented that the union party is nearly if not quite equal in strength to the rebel force now in it, and if they had but the arms they could protect their own state. It will be rough times for rebel leaders, and many rank and file too, citizens and all, when these refugees return armed and under our protection.

As the area of operations of these leaders becomes more and more restricted they seem to become less human in their doings, and house-burning, and hanging of old men, and boys of 10 to 15 years of age, is of daily occurrence. As Gaunt intimates that he expected it, they have burned his house and destroyed all his property, leaving his family in a state bordering on starvation. We sent a flag of truce out to endeavor to bring his wife into our lines, but Gen. Holmes would not permit her to come.

When this army moves we shall run them out of Arkansas and into, if not through, Texas like a gang of sheep.—They won't fight, are disgusted, and only kept together by fear—fear of their own leaders, and fear of what might be done to them if they come back. They are only about 15,000 to 20,000 strong, and their outposts only 30 or 40 miles below here, scattered from there to Red River. They scout clear up to our lines. Every once in a while we drop down and give them a clatter, just to let them know that we are alive yet. Col. Merrill went out a few days ago (got back yesterday) with about 1200 cavalry and four guns, and run about 6,000 of them across the Ouchita river. He had only one man wounded, killed six rebels with the sabre—an unusual thing—and brought in twenty-eight prisoners.

I regret that I cannot keep my engagement on New Year's day, but hope that I may be able to eat a dozen dinners in its place "when the spring time comes." Until then I must e'en do with hard tack and bacon.

Accept my heartfelt wishes for a merry Christmas, and a far happier New Year than the last has proved to us, and that life and health may be vouchsafed to us all.

INAUGURATION OF THE NEW STATE OFFICERS.—The inauguration of the state officers elect will take place on Monday, the 4th of January. The oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Dixon, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, in the assembly chamber. The new state officers, will receive their friends in the evening at the same place.

The Rochester people have a ghost that climbs trees and rings bells.

Unrequited love is a great power in society. Its influence lately caused a Washington lawyer to blow his brains out, and a St. Louis dutchman to drown himself.

In Troy, the other day, while a physician was hunting up one of his patients, he stumbled into the apartment of a poor woman, and discovered that for lack of a bedstead she used her bureau—each drawer being propped up and converted into a sleeping bunk for her little ones.

At a sale of coins at New York on Tuesday evening, a collection of American cents sold well—one, dated 1793, was knocked down for $6; another, $4,50; two copies of the same date, uncirculated, brought $20 each. A penny of 1794 sold for $20, and another for $8. A liberty cap cent of 1796, of which there are few now in existence, sold for $30.

Donation Party.

At a meeting held in Janesville on the 29th inst., it was resolved to have a Donation Party for the benefit of Rev. G. W. Lawrence, to be held at the Myers House, in said city on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, January 5th, 1864, and the following named gentlemen and ladies were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The committee feel constrained to suggest that Mr. Lawrence, by his long residence among us, by his exemplary life, by his untiring efforts in the cause of religion and good morals, is deserving of this testimonial from the people of Rock county. We therefore extend an earnest and general invitation to all to co-operate with us in this worthy effort.

All description of articles as well as money will be received. A supper will be prepared, for which the ladies are solicited to furnish the material. Good music will be in attendance.

As it is designed to have the supper ready by seven o'clock, it is hoped that all who are willing to assist, and all who bring articles for the table, will be there by five o'clock at the latest.

By order of the committee,
J. M. BURGESS, Ch'n.

AN IMPORTANT RAILROAD CONNECTION.—We learn that beside the extension of the Milwaukee and Western road from Columbus to Portage City, the contract has been let for the construction of the east end of the road from where it now joins the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien road, at what at what is called the Watertown depot, into the city, forming a connection and making a union depot with the Milwaukee and Chicago road. McDonald, of Madison, is the contractor on the east end. The whole road from the Lake Shore depot to Portage City, it is expected will be in operation by the first of June.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The commissioners from the several northern states interested in the cemetery at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, held a meeting in Harrisburg on the 17th inst., at which the plans for the proper completion of the cemetery were agreed upon. The estimated expenses, including the erection of an appropriate monument, foot up the amount of $63,500—to defray which the several states will be asked to appropriate sums of money, to be determined by a division of the expenses according to representation in congress.

Dr. Holmes says, in the Atlantic: "Mr. Beecher is a strong, healthy man in mind and body. His nerves have never been corrugated with alcohol; his thinking-marrow is not brown with tobacco fumes, like a meerschaum, as are the brains of so many unfortunate Americans; he is the same lusty, warm-blooded, strong-fibred, brave-hearted, bright-souled, clear-eyed creature that he was when the college boys at Amherst acknowledged him as the chiefest among their football kickers."

Among the Christmas gifts mentioned in the Hartford papers are coffins! Cheerful thought.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.

A Charleston letter to the Baltimore American, dated on the fleet, 24th, says: As I intimated in my last, we have sailed down here in the expectation of a month or two of inactivity. The strike among the engineers at the north, which has hindered the completion of new monitors and deprived our iron clad fleet of the reinforcements which were expected here more than a month since, has been the principal cause of delay, and the disabling of the Weehawken, and the coming on of the winter season, with its continual storms, has still further engendered this delay.—Two months hence spring will be advanced here, and our iron-clad force will be increased by three or four new monitors.—We will be prepared to take advantage of the most healthful and pleasant part of the season. Let us hope, if Grant does not steal a march on by one of his famous rear attacks, that Charleston will then fall.

In the meantime, if we cannot look for immediate and decisive results here, no great fear need be apprehended. General Gilmore's position is impregnable. The monitor Lehigh, by the time this reaches you, will have completed the repairs rendered necessary by the hammering she received while aground. The Patapsco has nearly completed repairs, and will shortly relieve the Nantucket at Warsaw Sound. Both the Patapsco and Lehigh have been provided with extra deck planks that will add to their invulnerability.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Dec. 28.

The steamer Adriatic, from Galway 22d, arrived here this afternoon. Her dates are four days later than those of the City of Manchester. The government employees at Sheerness, who assisted in fitting out the Rappahannock, have been discharged for violation of the neutrality law.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.

The Army of the Potomac has finally settled down, mud bound, into winter quarters. Cedar Mountain, the key to the position there, is held by our forces. The people all over that section are in a state of starvation, and daily thronging our camps to procure provisions, which our commissaries are ordered to sell at government prices. In this way many are relieved, while also nests of guerrillas are enabled to obtain supplies and protract their thieving and murdering system.

The firing heard on Friday was caused by an extension of our picket line.

Files of Richmond papers are received to the 25th inst. Much excitement had been occasioned by Averill's daring raid, and all the accounts of the vast destruction of property by his command are fully confirmed. It was thought one time he was endeavoring to reach Danville, to liberate the Union prisoners. The rebels were confident of capturing him, and declared that if he escaped, their cavalry had better be reorganized.

Col. Streight had escaped from Libby prison, but was subsequently recaptured. Capt. Alexander Richmond, commandant at Castle Thunder, had been arrested for extorting money from prisoners confined there.

It has transpired in official quarters that, although at one time named for the place, Gen. Rosecrans has not and will not now be ordered to the command of the department of the Missouri.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 29,

The Richmond Enquirer of the 25th contains the following:

BRISTOW, Dec. 23.—Our forces are still around Rutledge and Morristown.

Cannonading was heard at the latter place on Sunday.

Longstreet is unable to follow up his advantage in consequence of the large number of barefooted men in his command.

The weather is cold and the mountains are covered with snow.

Gen. Morgan passed through Columbia, S. C., on the 24th inst.

There were 300 cases of small pox among the Yankee prisoners at Danville.

The confederate army in East Tennessee have gone into winter quarters.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.

Specials are barren of news.

Herald's dispatches.—Major Mulford, flag of truce officer between Fort Monroe and City Point, arrived here this afternoon by special train from Annapolis, with unimportant dispatches for the government.

In his annual report, Secretary Chase asks congress to repeal that provision directing him to make loans for ten to forty years, and empower him instead to negotiate necessary loans on whatever terms he may in his discretion deem best for the public interest. This authority will undoubtedly be given, and the Secretary will have power to issue $300,000,000 more of the popular 5 20 loan. If subscriptions to this loan should continue to come in faster than needed by the department, we understand that permission will be given to agents to receipt subscriptions, payable in installments, as the amount shall be required, five per cent. only to be deposited as guaranty, thus saving to the government a large amount of interest.

Since congress refused to pay the exorbitant bounties expected, re-enlistments have been much increased and hundreds are arriving here daily. Those who were waiting for an increase of bounty are now coming forward, and in a few weeks at the present rate nearly all of the army of the Potomac will have re-enlisted for the war.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The World's special.—Not a little disappointment is felt at the failure to effect an exchange of prisoners, for General Butler telegraphed here that he was quite sanguine of securing a complete exchange. The whole matter now rests with Generals Hitchcock and Meredith. The rebels still permit private donations of provisions to go to our prisoners, but will receive nothing from our government in that line.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The war department has under consideration several important questions relating to the draft which will shortly be made public. The quotas of the several states are being arranged so as to avoid difficulties in the future. Each state will be officially informed of the number of men it is expected to raise, and the time fixed for the enforcement of the draft, which will not be later than the middle of January.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.

The sanitary fair closes on Saturday night. The produce and merchandise hall for the reception of donations of merchandise and country produce, will continue open until January 9th.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.

The Post says a British lieutenant, who was to sail for Bermuda to-day, was arrested by Marshal Murray and sent to Fort La Fayette. A rebel mail was found concealed in his baggage. The letters were immediately forwarded to Secretary Seward.

Further developments relative to the seizure of the steamer Cromwell and barque Circassian are published. It appears on day of sailing of the Cromwell, Marshal Murray arrested H. Leguar, formerly United States Minister to San Salvador, together with his wife, maid, child, Messrs. G. F. Canby and D. Beress, all of whom were sent to Fort La Fayette. Legur's baggage was searched. A bill of lading was found for 50 barrels of lard shipped on board the Circassian. On searching the lard 1,000 navy revolvers were found secreted therein. Canby and others were arrested for having been found in company with Legur, and on the supposition that they knew something of the matter.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.

Flour quiet and steady. Wheat quiet and firm at 144a148. Chicago spring 146 a150. Milwaukee club 153a158 winter red western. Corn firm, 1,30 in store. Oats quiet 93a94. Pork unchanged and quiet. Lard scarcely so firm 12a13. Stocks better. Sterling 67. Money very active at 7 per cent. Gold 52½. 5-20s coupons 13½. 5s 74.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.

It is not believed here that Secretary Chase will issue more legal tenders, though it is stated that both committees of congress have expressed the opinion that it would have to be done. It is understood that yesterday it it was his intention to call for a loan.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 30, 1 P. M.

Flour more active; wheat shade easier; sales at 114a116 No. 1, and 108a108½ No. 2, both in store; dressed hog receipts 970 head; market firm and active; 5,50a7,00.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Wadsworth says, "the tall mountains sleep night and day alike." Certainly the very tall ones always have their white night caps on.

A merchant advertised a commodity for sale, and gave notice that he would take in payment all kinds of country produce except promises.

What is the principal difference between the swallow and the cat? It is an admitted fact that "one swallow does not make a summer," but any cat can make a spring.

A western editor was lately shot in an affray. Luckily the ball came against a bundle of unpaid accounts in his pocket. Gunpowder couldn't get through that.

Cicero said he approved a youth that had nothing of the old man in him. We wonder how he would have liked a man with something of the old boy in him.

We nearly always talk of a thing before we do it; every action, like a statue, is first modelled in the poor wax of words.

"Man," said Adam Smith, "is an animal that makes bargains. No other animal does this—no dog exchanges bones with another."

A great mind, without the nutrition of adversity, would starve.

A brick making machine has been invented at New Haven, which wets the clay, kneads it, forces it through an orifice just brick size, and at proper distances cuts off the complete brick, at the rate of sixty per minute. The baking process of course comes afterwards.

The loss of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad company, by the burning of their machine shop at Aurora, foots up an aggregate of $250,000.

The strongest man feels the influence of woman's gentlest thoughts, as the mightiest oak quivers in the softest breeze.

The creation of a special committee of the house of representatives, with Mr. Spalding as its chairman, "to consider the subject of a national bankrupt act," is regarded as a hopeful sign by the advocates of that measure.

A lunatic asylum in France was recently set on fire by one of the inmates. The building was destroyed and six of the female inmates were burned to death.

The negro schools in New Orleans sustained by the government are seven in number, with 23 teachers and 1,190 scholars. The little darkies prove admirable scholars.

James Speed and others propose to start an "unconditional Union," that is an anti-slavery newspaper at Louisville, Kentucky, on the 1st of January. Good sense and success be with it.

Paris is to be lighted by balloons, whose cars are to give forth an electric light. There is to be one balloon for each 80,000 people in the city.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A fire at Aurora, Ill., on the 18th inst., destroyed the machine shop of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, with a large quantity of machinery and patterns, a locomotive and other property. The loss is estimated at $250,000. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

NOVEL HAYING.—Some farmers in Eliot, Me., who, through the excessive wet of the past summer, were unable to get on some low swamp land, have recently been mowing and hauling away the hay on the top of the ice.

A poor Irishman who applied for a license to sell spirits in one of the provincial towns of England, being questioned by the board of excise as to moral fitness for trust, replied: "Och, an it's there ye are? sure an it's not much of a character a man needs to sell whisky."

Some one spoiled a ball in Washington, Monday night last, by scattering a large quantity of cayenne pepper and Scotch snuff upon the floor, just before the commencement of the dancing. The officer who came in to arrest the guilty party was prostrated by the effects of the cayenne.

A COMPLIMENT TO AMERICAN GENTLEMEN.—An accomplished English lady, in a recent contribution to Frazer's Magazine, says: "If any time I needed to find a gentleman who should aid me in my little difficulties of travel, or show me a kindness with that consideration of a woman which is the true tone of a manly courtesy, then I should desire to find a North American gentleman. They are simply the most kind and courteous of any people."

ATTEMPT OF REBEL OFFICERS TO ESCAPE FROM JOHNSON'S ISLAND.—The Sandusky Register, of Friday morning, says that General Archer, General Jones, two captains and one civilian, prisoners on Johnson's Island attempted to escape from the Island on Thursday night, by bribing the guard. The proposition was made to two of the guard, and communicated to the officer of the day in advance, so that the final matter was anything but tragic. The guard permitted the men to escape from the enclosure and to reach a certain distance away, where they paid over the agreed sum, $200 to each of the guard. Greenbacks being short, the amount was eked out with two gold watches. One of the guard received $150 and a gold watch, and the other about the same. As soon as the quid pro quo was handed over, the curtain dropped, other acts came on the stage, and the five adventurers were ordered back to their old quarters—minus expenses. Clearly that experiment did not pay.

A GOOD MOVE.—A petition is in circulation, and is being numerously signed by many persons interested, for the passage of a law for the protection of the fur trade. This is a good move in the right direction, and one that will have a tendency, if it becomes a law, to protect fur bearing animals from being slaughtered promiscuously out of season.—Oshkosh Courier.

CURIOUS STATEMENT ABOUT JEFFERSON DAVIS.—A correspondent of the Evening Post, writing from Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, says:

Prairie du Chien is a city which has very little interest to the present generation, except for its commercial advantages, but it has peculiar significance to old residents of the west, and there is hardly an officer in the old army but at one time or another has been quartered at Fort Crawford. I was fortunate enough to meet with a highly respectable gentleman, a native of the place, and a son of French parents. He described Fremont, who visited him while on a surveying trip in the northwest, as a young officer of great energy, somewhat taciturn, but always affable and interesting. His descriptions and recollections of Jefferson Davis, who came from West Point, were most significant. It is a singular phenomenon in physiology, that a people of mixed races sometimes retain for years the evidence of their lineage upon the mother's side, but in the course of time, under climatic and other influences the features change and the trace is lost. One shrinks from relating anything likely to hurt the susceptibilities of so lofty a person as slaveholding Jeff. Davis, but history is impartial, and it must be told that he was known to the towns-people and by his brother officers as the "little nigger." My worthy informant, who has very friendly memories of Davis, having been taught to speak English by him, avers that he not only carried the negro in his face, but that he has it in his blood, and that several years after, when visiting his former friend, then secretary of war, he did not recognize him, and could scarcely believe him to be the same person.

While I am conscious that this intelligence, the truth of which I do not for an instant doubt, for it was confirmed by the evidence of many others, may not injure the cause of the secessionists in the minds of many good people, yet the world at large will not fail to draw the conclusion that the "little nigger" came legitimately, in one sense, into possession of his thirst for rule from his ancestors of Congo or Dahomey.

A magnificent altar has been brought from Europe by Bishop McClosky, for the cathedral at Albany. It has been erected in that building, and was used for the first time on christmas morning. It is said to be one of the richest and most beautiful altars in the country.

Adjourned Meeting.

At an adjourned war meeting held at the court house Tuesday evening, December 29th, 1863, the chairman being absent, on motion A. Crosby, of the second ward committee, reported the following additional subscriptions to the war bounty fund, viz:

	Mustered.	Enlisted.
First Ward	8	8
Second Ward	3	8
Third Ward	6	2
Fourth Ward	9	0
Total, city	26	13

The mayor reported the following telegraph from Madison: The quota of the city of Janesville is one hundred and twenty one. Credit, first ward one, second ward four, third ward three. Fifteen credited, and no ward mentioned. S. LOVELL.

On motion the meeting adjourned until to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock to meet at this place.

A. H. SMITH, Ch'n.
S. G. BAILEY, Sec'y.

WAR MEETING THIS EVENING AT THE COURT ROOM.—A series of war meetings are being held at the court room and will be held continually every evening until the quota of the city is full. It is the duty of every citizen to attend, no matter whether he is liable to the draft or not. It is the duty of business men to attend. It is the duty of men of property to be in attendance. And loyal men and patriots fail to do their duty to the government and themselves, if they do not fill the court room, not only this evening, but every evening until the quota is full in every ward. Come then every one, and show by your presence that the patriotic fires in Janesville burn as brightly as in the past. Let us sustain the government and maintain the flag of the Union, by destroying the infernal rebellion. And then we can have peace, and be united once again upon the broad basis of equal rights, and universal liberty. You that are with us come to the meeting, and do your duty in this hour of the nations trial. Come.

By order of Committee.

RESCUE HOOK AND LADDER.—A special meeting of this company will be held at their house to-morrow (Thursday) evening at half-past seven o'clock, and as business of importance is to be transacted every member is expected to be present. By order.

WANTED.—Two gentlemen connected with this office, wish to engage board for the winter in some good private family. Apply immediately.

GLOVES LOST.—A pair of new dark green Alexander kid gloves was lost to-day between the residence of Freeman Kimball, and the passenger depot. The finder will receive a reward and thanks by returning them to this office.

ARRIVAL OF THE 3D WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—This gallant regiment having re-enlisted for three years or the war, have been ordered home on a furlough to recruit, and were expected to arrive at Madison last night, where they would be received by a party of United States, state and city authorities.

☞ The Glass Blowers opened last night to a fashionable and appreciative audience. The distribution of the presents gave great satisfaction to their patrons.—To-night they will introduce several new experiments in glass. *

CLOSING OF STORES ON NEW YEAR'S DAY.—The merchants of this city have agreed to close their places of business on New Year's day.

WAR HAS ITS TRIUMPHS, SO HAS PEACE.—While the armies of the Union were winning brilliant victories, the CHEMICAL SALERATUS was enjoying a series of uninterrupted triumphs over the popular aversion to all saleratus, because the common kinds in use were found to be destructive. Science had demonstrated that the CHEMICAL SALERATUS was not only pure in its nature, but wonderful in its effects, producing better bread and biscuit than any other kind of saleratus or soda known.

It is a fact not generally known, but which ought to be known in connection with the recent national ceremonies at Gettysburg, that the killed and wounded in that grand encounter was greater than the loss at Waterloo. At Waterloo the Allies lost 20,000 in killed and wounded; the French about the same number. At Gettysburg the union army lost 4,000 killed and 12,000 wounded and the rebels 5,500 killed and 21,000 wounded. Our total loss was a little over 23,000; that of the rebels 40,000. Such terrible facts gave the consecration ceremonies a sad and mournful importance. It is emphatically our national necropolis.

EXTENSIVE COAL FIELD.—The most extensive coal field in the world commences near Carrollton, Kentucky, and runs through Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, containing about 80,000 square miles, of which a tenth part, or 8,000 miles, are in Indiana.

A CARD.

Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis, Early Stages of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Diseases of Women, and all other Complaints that lead to Consumption.

Are treated in a new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Hale, who has a permanent office in the MYERS HOUSE, JANESVILLE.

Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or Inflammation of the throat.

All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Hale's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.

Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.

Adjourned Meeting.

At an adjourned war meeting held at the court house Tuesday evening, December 29th, 1863, the chairman being absent, on motion A. Hyatt Smith was called to the chair, and proceedings of previous meeting were read. J. B. Crosby, of the second ward committee, reported the following additional subscriptions to the war bounty fund, viz:

O P Moyer,	$100	Robert Hodge,	50
George Harvey,	100	Riordan & Leech,	200
B B Grant,	50	Smith & Bostwick,	500
J Nash,	100	George Barnes,	100
VanKirk & Sons,	100	A C Bates,	400
Ed Connell,	100

Captain Putnam reported the following statement of enlistments, viz:

	Mustered.	Enlisted.
First Ward	8	8
Second Ward	8	8
Third Ward	6	2
Total, city	26	13

The mayor reported the following telegraph from Madison: The quota of the city of Janesville is one hundred and twenty one. Credit, first ward one, second ward four, third ward three. Fifteen credited, and no ward mentioned. S. LOVELL.

On motion the meeting adjourned until to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock to meet at this place. A. H. SMITH, Ch'n.

S. G. BAILEY, Sec'y.

WAR MEETING THIS EVENING AT THE COURT ROOM.—A series of war meetings are being held at the court room and will be held continually every evening until the quota of the city is full. It is the duty of every citizen to attend, no matter whether he is liable to the draft or not. It is the duty of business men to attend. It is the duty of men of property to be in attendance. And loyal men and patriots fail to do their duty to the government and themselves, if they do not fill the court room, not only this evening, but every evening until the quota is full in every ward. Come then every one, and show by your presence that the patriotic fires in Janesville burn as brightly as in the past. Let us sustain the government and maintain the flag of the Union, by destroying the infernal rebellion. And then we can have peace, and be united once again upon the broad basis of equal rights, and universal liberty. You that are with us come to the meeting, and do your duty in this hour of the nations trial. Come.

By order of Committee.

RESCUE HOOK AND LADDER.—A special meeting of this company will be held at their house to-morrow (Thursday) evening at half-past seven o'clock, and as business of importance is to be transacted every member is expected to be present. By order.

WANTED.—Two gentlemen connected with this office, wish to engage board for the winter in some good private family. Apply immediately.

GLOVES LOST.—A pair of new dark green Alexander kid gloves was lost to-day between the residence of Freeman Kimball, and the passenger depot. The finder will receive a reward and thanks by returning them to this office.

ARRIVAL OF THE 3D WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—This gallant regiment having reenlisted for three years or the war, have been ordered home on a furlough to recruit, and were expected to arrive at Madison last night, where they would be received by a party of United States, state and city authorities.

☞ The Glass Blowers opened last night to a fashionable and appreciative audience. The distribution of the presents gave great satisfaction to their patrons.—To-night they will introduce several new experiments in glass. *

CLOSING OF STORES ON NEW YEAR'S DAY.—The merchants of this city have agreed to close their places of business on New Year's day.

WAR HAS ITS TRIUMPHS, SO HAS PEACE.—While the armies of the Union were winning brilliant victories, the CHEMICAL SALERATUS was enjoying a series of uninterrupted triumphs over the popular aversion to all saleratus, because the common kinds in use were found to be destructive. Science had demonstrated that the CHEMICAL SALERATUS was not only pure in its nature, but wonderful in its effects, producing better bread and biscuit than any other kind of saleratus or soda known.

It is a fact not generally known, but which ought to be known in connection with the recent national ceremonies at Gettysburg, that the killed and wounded in that grand encounter was greater than the loss at Waterloo. At Waterloo the Allies lost 20,000 in killed and wounded; the French about the same number. At Gettysburg the union army lost 4,000 killed and 12,000 wounded and the rebels 5,500 killed and 21,000 wounded. Our total loss was a little over 23,000; that of the rebels 40,000. Such terrible facts gave the consecration ceremonies a sad and mournful importance. It is emphatically our national necropolis.

EXTENSIVE COAL FIELD.—The most extensive coal field in the world commences near Carrollton, Kentucky, and runs through Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, containing about 80,000 square miles, of which a tenth part, or 8,000 miles, are in Indiana.

Are treated in a new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Hale, who has a permanent office in the MYER'S HOUSE, JANESVILLE.

Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or inflammation of the throat.

All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Hale's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.

Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.
